NEW DELHI: The role of schools towards instilling values in children and for the creation of a healthy society is indisputable and these were among the key issues that were brought to the fore during a day-long workshop on Human Rights and Gender Sensitisation held at Jawaharlal Nehru University Campus branch of Kendriya Vidyalaya on Friday.

Kendriya Vidyalaya Sanghatana (KVS) Commissioner Avinash Dikshit launched a nationwide campaign aimed at making KV students and staff more aware and alert on issues related to human rights and gender sensitisation.
