

Accreditation is a process of establishing competence of any academic institution in delivering the requisite elements of education and its ability to carry out evaluation to make professional judgement. It focuses on learning, self development and encourages the school to pursue continual excellence.

It is an honour for Sangathan that based on the evaluation as per "Accreditation Standard for Quality School Governance, Second Edition : September 2008", NABET School Accreditation Committee has approved the NABET Accreditation of the following three Kendriya Vidyalayas :-

- (i) KV Shahibagh, Ahmedabad
- (ii) KV Ganesh Khind, Pune
- (iii) KV No. 1 Bhopal

It is also a matter of pride that Quality Council of India has so far accredited 26 Vidyalayas all over India out of which 6 Kendriya Vidyalayas have got the certificate and accreditation. The Kendriya Vidyalayas which have already got the certificate and accreditation are :-

- (i) KV IIT Powai
- (ii) KV Sector 8, R K Puram
- (iii) KV Annanagar, Chennai
